This advance report presents a summary of data on household, family and dwelling characteristics from the 1966 Census for provinces, counties and census divisions, urban centres of 10,000 population and over, and census metropolitan areas.

More detailed information on these subjects will be issued at later dates as part of the regular volume series of final reports of the 1966 Census. The purpose of this advance report is to make summary totals available at the earliest possible date for the larger geographic areas and urban centres.

Definitions on which these statistics are based appear on page 12. The following statement shows a comparison of some of the main items with the previous 1961 Census.

(1) Excluding collective-type households and dwellings. — Ne comprend pas les ménages ni les logements collectifs.

DEFINITIONS

HOUSEHOLDS:

A household as defined in the census consists of a person or group of persons occupying one dwelling. It usually consists of a family group, with or without lodgers, employees, etc. However, it may consist of a group of unrelated persons, of two or more families sharing a dwelling, or of one person living alone. Every person is a member of some household, and the number of households equals the number of occupied dwellings. A dwelling is defined as a structurally separate set of living quarters, with a private entrance either from outside the building, or from a common hall, lobby, vestibule or stairway inside. The entrance must not be through anyone else's living quarters.

The census classifies households into two main groups: (1) the household which consists of one person or a small group of persons occupying an ordinary dwelling, usually spoken of as a "private" household; and (2) the "collective" type household which includes hotels, large lodging-houses, with 10 or more lodgers, institutions of all types, military camps, lumber camps and other establishments of a similar nature. In certain instances, as in the case of large penal institutions, hospitals, or military camps, there may be private households occupying structurally separate dwellings on the grounds of the institution or camp (e.g., separate family living quarters of staff members, servicemen, etc.). Such households are included in the count of private households. Households of the collective type are excluded from the tables in this report.

DWELLING:

For census purposes, a dwelling is a structurally separate set of living quarters, with a private entrance either from outside or from a common hall or stairway inside the building. The various types of dwellings are:

Single detached: This type is commonly called a "single house". It contains only one dwelling unit which is completely separated on all sides from any other dwelling or structure.

Single attached: This category includes dwelling units separated by a common wall extending from ground to roof. Single attached dwellings in structures consisting of only two dwelling units are classified as single attached (double). All other single attached dwellings whether in rows of three or more dwellings or simply a unit adjoining a store or other non-residential structure, are classified as single attached (other).

Apartment or flat: These dwellings are also subdivided into two categories. Apartment, flat (duplex) refers to each dwelling in a structure originally designed, or structurally converted, to provide two dwelling units, one above the other and adjoining no other structure. Apartment, flat (other) includes all dwellings of the apartment, flat-type other than the duplex-type mentioned above.

Mobile: Refers to any dwelling designed for movement and actually moveable, such as a trailer, railway car, or boat, if occupied by persons with no other usual residence at the census date.

TENURE:

A dwelling is classified as "owned" (even though mortgaged) if it belongs to some member of the household; otherwise, it is classified as "rented", whether or not a specified rent is paid.

FAMILY:

A family, as defined in the census, consists of a husband and wife (with or without children who have never married) or a parent, with one or more children never married, living together in the same dwelling. Adopted children and step-children have the same status as own children, and, in fact, a family, for census purposes, may comprise a man or woman living with a guardianship child or ward under 21 years of age.

DEFINITIONS

MÉNAGES:

Pour les besoins du recensement, un ménage se compose d'une personne ou d'un groupe de personnes occupant un logement. Il consiste ordinairement en un groupe familial avec ou sans chambreurs, employés, etc. Il peut aussi se composer d'un groupe de personnes non parentes, de deux familles ou plus partageant le même logement ou d'une personne vivant seule. Toute personne est membre d'un ménage quelconque et le nombre de ménages est égal à celui des logements occupés. On entend par logement des locaux d'habitation distincts quant à la structure, avec une entrée privée donnant sur l'extérieur ou sur un endroit commun à l'intérieur: corridor, couloir, vestibule ou escalier. L'entrée doit pouvoir donner accès au logement sans obliger à passer par les locaux d'habitation d'une autre personne.

Le recensement divise les ménages en deux groupes principaux: 1) le ménage qui se compose d'une personne ou d'un petit groupe de personnes occupant un logement ordinaire appelé ménage "privé"; et 2) le ménage du type "collectif" qui comprend les hôtels, les grandes maisons de chambres avec 10 chambreurs ou plus, les institutions de tous genres, les camps militaires, les camps forestiers et les autres établissements de même nature. Dans certains cas comme, par exemple, celui des grands établissements pénitentiaires, des hôpitaux ou des camps militaires, il peut y avoir un ménage privé qui occupe un logement distinct quant à la structure et situé dans l'enceinte de l'établissement ou du camp (locaux d'habitation familiaux distincts des membres du personnel, du service, etc.). Ces ménages sont comptés comme ménages privés. Les ménages du type collectif sont exclus des tableaux du présent rapport.

LOGEMENT:

Pour les fins du recensement, le logement est une série de pièces d'habitation distincte quant à la structure et ayant une entrée privée donnant sur l'extérieur ou sur un couloir ou un escalier commun à l'intérieur. Voici les divers genres de logements:

Individuel isolé: Ce genre de logement est communément appelé "maison simple". Il ne contient qu'un seul logement complètement isolé, de tous côtés, de tout autre logement ou construction.

Individuel attenant: Cette catégorie comprend les logements séparés par un mur mitoyen s'élevant du sol au toit. Les logements individuels attenants faisant partie de structures ne comptant que deux logements sont classés comme individuels attenants (maison double). Tous les autres logements individuels attenants, qu'ils fassent partie d'une rangée de trois logements ou plus ou qu'il s'agisse simplement d'un logement attenant à un magasin ou à une autre construction non domiciliaire, sont classés comme individuels attenants (maisons groupées).

Appartement ou plain-pied: Ces logements se subdivisent eux aussi en deux catégories. Appartement, plain-pied (duplex): ce sont les logements d'une structure construite ou transformée de façon à donner deux logements situés l'un au-dessus de l'autre sans autre construction attenante. Appartement, plain-pied (autre): ce sont tous les logements du genre appartement ou plain-pied et qui ne sont pas de la catégorie des duplex.

Mobile: Il s'agit de tout logement destiné à être transporté et réellement transportable (remorque, wagon, ou bateau) s'il était occupé par des personnes sans autre résidence ordinaire au moment du recensement.

MODE D'OCCUPATION:

Un logement est classé comme étant celui du "propriétaire" (même s'il y a des hypothèques) s'il appartient à quelque membre du ménage; autrement, il est classé comme un logement de "locataire", qu'un loyer donné soit payé ou non.

FAMILLE:

La famille, selon la définition du recensement, se compose d'un époux et de son épouse (avec ou sans enfants non encore mariés) ou de l'un des deux avec un ou plusieurs enfants non encore mariés, et demeurant ensemble dans le même logement. Les enfants adoptifs et les beaux-fils et belles-filles sont considérés comme les propres enfants, et, de fait, aux termes du recensement, une famille peut se composer d'un homme ou d'une femme demeurant avec un enfant en tutelle ou pupille de moins de 21 ans.
